Ok, if you can make the tire crumb call, then I will keep working on gold king. Thanks.

I'm available to sit the call so there is R8 representation. I can take notes etc. but I do not have any information to share.

Should I call in just in case you get pulled away from the call due to Gold King???

I am going to try...pretty busy with Gold King, but may be able to break from Gold King for a half hour especially if there isn't anyone else from R8....

Are either or both of you plnanning to be on the 8:30 am call with HQ to discuss tire crumbs? I wasn't sure if you may be involved in the Gold King response.

I think Melanie is out, so just trying to confirm R8 coverage for the call. I can participate on the call if no one else is available, however, I don't know the latest on this topic.

Thanks,

Nancy
